Hi Todd,

We can have the L3 in our warehouse by 2nd to 3rd week of May.
The price would be $1,340 for the L3++ . The price includes the PSU.

Best Regards,
Joe Kalfa

Hi Todd.

I haven't heard from the Escrow agent.

Can you reconfirm that my understanding of Friday's conversation is correct?

My understanding is that we are to hear from the Escrow agent today before noon, that the funds have been released by the bank and are available to be wired to us once the conditions of the Escrow agreement are fulfilled. If the Escrow agent is not in a position to notify us of the forgoing, you will be wiring $100K to us directly. Funds would be applied towards payment of the 1st 500 machines. (same as the last $100K you wired).

We are nearing the end of day here and have not heard from you or Escrow agent. Was hoping to have the 1st batch of machines released today.

It seems we are not on target as you had said yesterday.

Please call to discuss. We are now at the point where both payments - (for the 1st 500 machines and 2nd 600 machines) are in default. We can not let this go on indefinitely.

Where do we stand?

Please call shortly.

I will be heading out within the hour.
